

Ocelot Wrestlers Step Up Practice

Schoolcraft College wrestling coach Larry Meyer has stepped up his practice schedule to four days per week in preparation for the opening of the 1973-74 season. Meyer and a squad of 20 wrestlers will be trying to improve on Schoolcraft's third place finish last year in The Michigan Junior College Athletic Association (MJCAA).

Heading up this year's team will be returning lettermen Howard Strick and Rick Setzer. Strick, a 126-pounder, finished fourth in national junior college competition last year, while Setzer, a heavyweight, returns as the Michigan-Ohio regional champion.

Meyer also has several outstanding freshmen prospects, including Tom Alexander from Bedford High School. Alexander won the Michigan Class A 145-pound championship last year.

Schoolcraft opens its 1973-74 season on Nov. 29.

IN THE POCKET

By W.W. EDGAR

Arlene Fills, a 145 average bowler, showed the way in the St. Aldan's league with a 209 in 532.

DELORES DOWHAN stole the show in the Livonia Ladies Classic when she won two of three games and the series with a 468-152-600. Her single game victories were 179-44-223 and 168-44-212.

Ellie Wilkins took the other single with 188-22-210.

If medals were awarded for hard luck along the bowling front, one of the choicest would have to be reserved for Greg Hatter who drew a frown from Dame Fortune just as he was on the threshold of realizing a bowler's dream at Bel-Aire Lanes.

Bowling in the top league, he was well on his way to an 800 series when the fickle dame stepped in.

He had opened with a 277 and followed with a 245 and was hitting the pocket in the final. Then, in the 10th frame, with frame beckoning to him, it happened. On what looked like a solid hit he left the 8-10 split and had to be content with a 256 finisher for a 778 series.

This is the highest series bowled in the area this season but the glamour of that was lost in the failure to break the 800 barrier.

Greg's performance topped a night of high scoring at Bel-Aire as John Wodarski fashioned a 691, Jack Trellor a 679 and Rick Fishman a 673.

Joe Charron, sponsor of the Charron Five in the Wonderland Classic, set a fine example for his fellow sponsors when he broke the 700 barrier and aided his team to set a new high series mark for the season.

Joe linked games of 223, 266 and 233 for 722 while his team posted counts of 1059, 1166 and 1124 for the new high of 3349.

The nation's top pros will invade the metropolitan front next Friday when Hartfield Lanes in Berkley hosts the $50,000 Canada Dry Open.

The field of 160 will include all of top money winners.

Heading the list will be Don McCune, the present leader, and Don Johnson, who was named bowler of the year for the past two seasons.

Dick Beattie and his wife, both left handers, walked away with top honors at Westland Lanes during the week.

Dick put together games of 226, 235 and 222 for a 682 to lead the Classic while his wife showed the way to the ladies with a 621 on games of 202, 235 and 184.

Dick's closest rivals were Ron Sharples with a 237 in 664 and Bob O'Brien with a 660.

Dick Preston, one of the real veterans of the Classics, still is going strong.

This week he linked games of 254, 221 and 203 for a 678 to pace the field at Garden Lanes.

To round out the top three, Pat Dubkek had a 645 and Don Denham a 636.

One of the best battles of the year was staged in the Moose League where Don McHugh posted a 665 to earn a two-pin margin over Bill Montgomery.

Melba Marentette of Westland had one of the best scoring nights of her career last Wednesday when she paced the Ladies All Star Major with a 648, while Ann Setlock returned to her old form with a 638.

The women still are turning in the best performances at Mayflower Lanes.

This week it was Cathy Spencer who set the pace with a 222 in 534 and Ilene Leighton was right behind her with a 217 in 528.

Another woman shared some of the spotlight when Marilyn White posted a 128 triplicate at Bel-Aire.

The women also stole the show in the Thursday Mixed League at Farmington Lanes. Barb Walling was at the head of the parade with a 224 in 636 and Mary Randall was right behind with a 208 in 623.

Continuing the women's reign, Arlene McNaught showed the way in the Noon Classic with a 610, that included a high game of 213.

The spell was broken when Roy Smith topped the Teen Classic with a 602.

East Girls Win, 65-1

The Garden City East girls' basketball squad pushed its mark to 4-0 in a lopsided 65-1 victory over Southgate.

A solo free throw kept the Panther girls from achieving the basketball impossible.

Carolyn Leitner and Melanie Lane popped in 14 points each for the victors with Shelly Arner adding 12.
