

Hoping For Upset

48, while Salem's mark is 120-62.

"Trenton likes to control the football," added Moshimer. "Our key will be our defense and ability to stop the big play. The pressure will be on the defense with our offense only as efficient as the defense.

"If we can run 60 plays offensively, we will win this one. Everyone has been talking about us getting blown off the field. I can't believe this. On paper it might show this, but on the field it will be a different story.

"In this game, the first score will not be a key. Both teams will score.

"This has to be my biggest game ever as a coach," commented Moshimer. "And the biggest game for Plymouth since its won the title in '63. I firmly believe the result is all going to fall on the defense."

Moshimer, in all earnestness, will be disappointed if not surprised if his Rocks don't earn a share of the Suburban Eight title.

The nation's top professional bowlers will descend upon metropolitan Detroit this weekend to compete in the richest tournament of the year in the area.

Officially, the competition is known as the Canada Dry Open, but in reality it is the annual visit to the Hartfield Lanes in Berkley that will reach its climax Tuesday night.

The curtain goes up on the big event Friday night with the annual pro-amateur that has drawn a record entry from all sections of the state. The pro battle opens Saturday afternoon and the field will be reduced Sunday to the eight finalists.

Leading the field will be Don McCune, Hoosier sharpshooter who is the pros' top winner thus far.

Don McKay will have every reason to remember

Tuesday evening in the Winderland Classic.

He put together games of 251, 253 and 236 for a 740 - third highest series bowled in the area thus far.

With this big count he topped Don Feloni, his nearest rival by 42 pins. Meanwhile, Jim Shelp's team boasted a 3123 series to top the circuit.

While the men were battling, Helen Kuzar held up the ladies side when she linked games of 177, 214 and 247 for a 638 - to set a new high mark for the Ladies Classic.

Fred Ringrod got back into the swing of things at Bel-Aire when he broke the 700 barrier in the Classic. Opening with a 284 he added a 194 and 246 for a 704 to beat out Jerry Garick for high honors by a mere eight pins.

Other top scores of the week at Bel-Aire included Jim Charnhorst's 657 in the Senior House League and Erv Watson's 654 for runner-up honors.

Scoring fell off in the Westland Classic where Edgar Wiley took top honors with a 679 that included a 266 middle game. Behind him came Jerry Holt with 663 and Bob Chamberlain with 657.

On the distaff side Dee Engel had an unusual series. She opened with 211, followed with 160 and closed with a 223 for 694.

More of the unusual happened in the Livonia Lanes Ladies Classic when three girls tied for top honors in the first game. Lillian Beatie led off with a 150-46-196. Delores Dowhan followed with 156-40-196 and Eleanor Slavin made it a triplicate when she posted a 151-45-196.

Continuing her good scoring, Alice Meil showed the way at Mayflower Lanes with a 516 and Charlotte Mitchell won single game honors with a 212.
