2 Hunted Men Found In Florida

Oakway Features Famous Cellist

Two men held on armed robbery charges in Fort Pierce, Fla. are wanted on several fugitive warrants charging them with armed robbery in Livonia and Garden City, according to St. Lucie County sheriff's deputies.

They were identified as Theodore Gibson, 23, who at one point gave a Farmington address, and Richard Athan, 22, no known address.

They allegedly robbed a hardware store in the south Florida city last month, reportedly forcing the owner to hand over several hundred dollars from the store's safe at gunpoint.

Deputies arrested them in a motel room Nov. 19 and learned this week of the Michigan warrants, which allege they robbed men's and women's clothing stores at gunpoint.

The pair are held in the St. Lucie County jail without bond awaiting court action on the Florida charges, for which they could receive a maximum of life imprisonment.

Deputies added that Gibson last week was involved in a thwarted attempt to break out of jail. Fort Pierce is on the Intra-Coastal waterway, about 55 miles north of West Palm Beach.

The Oakway Symphony will present its second concert of the season Sunday, Dec. 9, at 4 p.m. in Seaholm High School, Birmingham.

The concert will feature Paul Olefsky, cellist. His performances will include "Toccata" by Frescobaldi, symphony No. 8 by Schubert and concerto in C major for cello by Haydn.

Olefsky has appeared in most of the major music centers of the western hemisphere, Europe, India, Ceylon, and the Far East.

He has soloed many times at Carnegie Hall and was the youngest ever, to solo with the Philadelphia Orchestra under Ormandy. For many years he was principal cellist with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Cellist Makes Debut

A brilliant young American cellist, Stephen Kates, will make his debut appearance with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra in Ford Auditorium Thursday, Dec. 13.

Kates replaces violinist David Oistrakh who, for reasons of ill health, was forced to cancel this single concert date with the orchestra.

Kates, whose musical credentials include a silver medal won in the Third International Tchaikovsky Competition held in Moscow in 1966, will be heard in Dvorak's Cello Concerto.

Pierre Hétu, former associate conductor of the orchestra and currently music director and conductor of the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra, returns to Detroit to conduct the Dec. 13 subscription series concert.

Piano Concert Is Scheduled

Ed Scofield, a pianist and organist who has made numerous appearances on radio and television, will present a concert Sunday, Dec. 9, at 1:30 and 3:30 p.m. in Hammell Music, Inc., 15630 Middle Belt, Livonia.
