Ski Heil

By BILL CAMERON

Now that the rain has washed all of the old, dirty snow away, we can start all over again.

I'm always optimistic when preparing to head north for a weekend. It's been almost two winters since I've been up to Boyne Country. I understand lift tickets are up to $9.50 per day. There doesn't seem to be any way you can escape the rising costs in any phase of recreation, whether you're a spectator or a participant.

Although I'm told that Nub's Nob across from Boyne Highlands still charges $7 for a lift ticket. Hang in there Doris.

Departing from skiing for a moment, I'd like to mention one of the feature sporting attractions of the winter coming to Detroit.

That of course being the Virginia Slims women's tennis tournament sponsored by the Metropolitan Detroit Ford Dealers, Feb. 20-24.

The matches will be held day and evening at Cobo Hall with the finals scheduled for 2 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 24. If you've never seen Billie Jean King, Rosie Casals, Chris Evert and the other pros in action, make a point to spend a day at the matches. Most of the area tennis clubs will be renting a bus and taking a group of their women members on Wednesday, Feb. 20, designated as Ladies Day, leaving around 9 a.m. and returning by 3 p.m.

Many of the local clubs will play host to several players as they search for practice courts whether they've won or lost. Most of the girls are playing year-round and with the excellent
