Plymouth High Millionaire party will aid program for singles

The Plymouth High School class of 1949 will hold a reunion on March 30.

The committee asks that any graduate of the class who has not been contacted get in touch with Helen Fisher at 9348 Ivanhoe Dr., Plymouth.

Pretend money will help fill a real need when the Moondusters, a singles group, stages a millionaire party Sunday, March 3, in the Livonia Senior Citizens Activities Center, 15200 Farmington Road.

The family party, scheduled from 6 to 11 p.m., will raise funds to help support the weekly dances the club sponsors in the Livonia Family Y for single people 25 and over.

Tickets for the party are $2 and will be sold at the door. The club also will be glad to get donations from any persons interested in furthering its program.

Mrs. Sadie Farhat, a Livonia grandmother, organized the Moondusters group early in 1971 and is in charge of the millionaire party.

"Our expenses for the dances have gone up in the last few months," she said, "and at the same time attendance has been somewhat down, probably due to the cold weather and the increased cost of gasoline."

"But the need for these dances is so great. I feel we just must continue them. It's hard to describe the need they fill — you don't understand unless you see the people there."

"So many people alone feel quite deserted. This social event is something to look forward to all week."

The dances are each Saturday night from 9 p.m. to midnight in the Livonia Family Y, Schoolcraft and Stark. For $2.00, those who attend get music by a live band, refreshments and most important, good company.

"We have six couples who met at our dances and later were married," Mrs. Farhat said.

Mrs. Farhat organized the group with the aid of the Family Y, but now it is entirely self-supporting.

The officers who served with her originally were Al Wyman, Frankie Walker, Bette Footitt, Shirley Quadlin, Kathleen Deer, Lorene Kaye and Lois Jones. Ken Jennings and Milt Jennings have served as sergeants-at-arms.

Joyce Hunt is president now, and the other members of the executive board are Pauline Farr, vice-president, Peg McDonough, secretary and Herb Kyles, treasurer.

Mongoloid group sets benefit drive

The Livonia Jaycees Auxiliary is one of many groups in the metropolitan area who will help the Mongoloid Achievements Foundation (MAF) launch its second major fund-raising drive in March.

The kickoff luncheon for "March for Mongoloids" will begin at 12 noon on Friday, March 1, in Kingsley Inn, Bloomfield Hills, when Sylvia Stern, vice president of the South Oakland County Chapter of the Women's Council of Realtors will introduce Chuck Bosch, poster child from Lake City.

The drive will close with an art auction in the inn, on Sunday, March 31, beginning at 2 p.m.

There will be coffee hours, canister drives, and magic shows held in various areas throughout the month.

All proceeds will go to the non-profit organization which is funded only by minimal payments made by students at the foundation school and private contributions.

MAF offers classes for mongoloid children and a variety of services which include classes for parents and parent counseling, public and private demonstrations showing social and academic achievements of mongoloids, mongoloid psychology and other courses beneficial to those who work with mongoloids.

Funds raised will be used for maintaining classrooms and an office, expanding MAF services and continuing research in the area of mongolism.

Bread flowers is club topic

The art of making bread flowers will be demonstrated by Irene Turk and Mary Rudick at the Plymouth Mayflower Garden Club meeting Thursday, Feb. 28, at 10 a.m.

The meeting will be held in the home of Dorothy Fulton, 4048 Orangelawn, Co. - hostess will be Lillian Ash.
