

Group seeks music entries

Entries must be submitted by March 16 for the annual music scholarship competition sponsored by the Farmington Musicale.

Judging will take place on April 6 and 7 at Harrison High School in Farmington.

Entries must be sent on or before March 16 to the scholarship contest chairman, Mrs. J.R. Love, 26194 Kiltartan; Farmington. One rule of the competition is that only classical music may be played and not popular recordings.

Students eligible include those attending both Farmington and Farmington Hills public and parochial schools who live in the Farmington area but attend school elsewhere, and children of Musicale members regardless of residence and members of the junior chapter Clockspies.

The junior division contest will be for 7-9th graders with prizes of $150 for first place winner, $ 100 for second and $50 for third. In the senior division for grades 10-12, first prize is $200, second $125 and third in $75. Categories are piano, vocal, string, brass, wind and percussion.

Senior scholarship winners will be invited to perform in the May 5 program for National Music Week, sponsored by the Musicale at Harrison High School.

At that time Mrs. Love will present senior and junior awards along with honorary mention certificates to all semi-finalists. Junior winners will perform at the May 1 Musicale meeting.

International Women's Day

An all day celebration of International Women's Day, 1974, will be held on the Orchard Ridge Campus of Oakland Community College in Farmington, on Wednesday, March 6. The day commemorates the ongoing struggle of women workers for equality and decent working conditions.

The history of the day stems back to 1857 when women garment workers marched to protest low wages and intolerable working conditions. Three years later they formed their own union and were joined by thousands of women in New York's lower east side.

This year's celebration is sponsored by the OCC Womencenter, the Orchard Ridge Health Service, and the American Cancer Society. It will include a program of workshops, free pap tests, free child care with films for children, art and literature displays, films and entertainment and information for women interested in returning to school.

Speakers from the metropolitan area will be on campus to participate in a schedule of workshops, all to be held in J building.

REGISTRATION begins at 9 a.m. when coffee and donuts will be served.

Workshops are scheduled as follows:

- At 9:30 a.m.: Tai Chi workshop with Kathy Anisk.
- At 10:30 a.m.: "Childcare is Caring for Children" conducted by members of the OCC Womencenter.
- At 11:30 a.m.: Black Feminism, led by the Detroit chapter of the National Black Feminist Organization.
- At 12:30 p.m.: Rape: An Institution of Capitalism, with Sherry Joseph.
- At 1:30 p.m.: The Original Self Help Clinic, a slide show, directed by Kathy Courtney and Barbara Sutton of the Feminist Women's Self Help Center in Detroit.
- At 1:30 p.m.: "Our Liberation" a workshop for men conducted by Les Bieseman, of the OCC sociology department.

Creative writing contest is coming

Deadline for entries in a creative writing contest sponsored by Oakland Community College's Orchard Ridge campus will expire March 31.

The contest will be in two divisions. One is open to Oakland County high school students and the other to Oakland adults.

An entry fee of $1 is required in each division. Prizes of $10 will be awarded to first-place winners in four categories: short story, poetry, essay - article and drama.

Proceeds will be donated to the Orchard Ridge Child Play Center.

Entrance forms and information sheets are available from Mrs. Linda Yessik of the English department at Orchard Ridge.
