Judges Mrs. Ruth Waldfogel, from Oakland Community College; John Anhut, and Wilbur V. Brotherton, Oakland County commissioner, selected the winners on the basis of their contributions to the community.

Soroptimists honor 3 for citizenship

Michael R. Shpiece, 24708 Westmoreland; Joan A. Cianoelo, 25850 Dumas Court, and Janeen G. Ellis, 31610 Rockycress, received the Soroptimist Youth Citizenship Awards presented at the annual Farmington Soroptimist banquet. As first-place winner, Shpiece qualifies for regional and national contests which may result in a full college scholarship.

Shpiece is a student at Harrison High School, is president of the student council and plans to attend Wayne State University next fall. Second place winner Miss Cianoelo is a senior at Farmington High School and works with the Our Lady of Sorrows student council on their religious and education program.

Miss Ellis, third place winner, attends Farmington High School and has a strong interest in vocal music. She plans to travel with Southern Michigan Youth Choral in Europe this summer.

"This isn't a beauty contest, or a scholarship contest, a Soroptimist member said. 'It's for an all-around student.'"

The entries were judged by a panel of Mrs. Ruth Waldfogel; John Anhut and Wilbur V. Brotherton. Toastmaster was David McCabe.
