Where can I find it all?

Cover and Page 3—His and her clothes from the J. L. Hudson Co.—The Casino, Nice Girl Like You and fur shops. Setting by Bell Greenhouses, Birmingham.

Page 6—(top) gingham in cool Dacron polyester with velvet lapels for the bridegroom from After Six. (bottom) The elegant Windsor-look tuxedo, also from After Six. Available at Valente's and Steve Petix.

Page 20—A bridegroom wouldn't mind carrying out his responsibility for flowers as elegant as Moss-Lipinski's all-orchid bridal bouquet.

Pages 22, 23—Chief Raleigh House pastry chef Walter Langeloh does his tricks with frosting and cake in the pastry kitchens.

Page 24—The "Pillow Pop" seating ideas are from the Bunting Co. The box you buy the pillows in becomes the platform for the seating arrangement. The group comes in brilliant stripes and is available at Atlantic Department Stores. Perfect for kissing, this loveseat is called "Marilyn" and comes from Stendig and Italy. Available at Gorman's Gallery.

Page 45—Parmenter Florists makes a lasting gift of first fresh and then dried flowers in a brass cricket box.
