COMMENCEMENT WEEK.

A great deal of pains has been taken by the school board and faculty of the Farmington high school to make the commencement and promotion exercises of 1909 a success. Much time has been spent by Prof. Goodrich and his able corps of teachers in getting together a program which will be instructive and entertaining to those who attend the exercises.

Next Sunday evening the baccalaureate sermon will be delivered by Rev. N. E. Musser in the Baptist church.

The Junior class will give a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Dickerson Thursday evening in honor of the Senior class.

Promotion program will be rendered on June 23 and commencement program Friday, June 25.
