

RED BUTTONS

'Toyland' highlights benefit

Comedian Red Buttons brought a touch of Hollywood to the Inspiration Ball held in the Latin Quarter Friday evening.

Buttons interjected his comic routine into the benefit, held to raise funds for St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital, ALSAC.

Nearly 500 people attended the ball which was highlighted by a "Toyland Revue."

Carol Kimmel dancers from the Carol Kimmel studios in Royal Oak kicked-off the floor show which also included singer Jodi Kellman.

A CAROUSEL with plumed horses set the mood of the program.

The theme of "Toyland Revue" was chosen because St. Jude's is devoted to children's research and children and teenagers contribute to the ALSAC fund-raising.

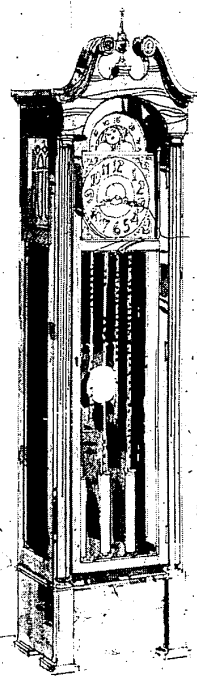

The Warren Covington Orchestra provided music in the style made famous by Tommy Dorsey at the dinner dance.

Chairmen of the 1974 fund-raiser were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Slavik of Orchard Lake.
