Karisma at Fanny's

"The Sounds of Karisma," a five-member group from Ann Arbor, are at Fanny's in the Troy Hilton Inn through June 1 with music that ranges from violin ballads to Frank Zappa comedy.

"THE GROUP varies their approach according to each audience," said their personal manager, Musiquita. "At Fanny's, they will be doing a lot of semi-jazz, rock and ballads, as well as a unique version of Frank Zappa's 'Cosmic Debris'."

"The Sounds of Karisma" have been playing together for four years, although Kathy and George had a head start when they began singing together as youngsters. "Sounds of Karisma" begin their first set at Fanny's Monday through Saturday at 8:30 p.m. Fanny's is located at Maple Road and Stephenson Highway in Troy.

Members of the group include lead singer Kathy Lindsay, her brother George Heyman on lead guitar, Maria Pelley doing percussions and back-up singing, Paul Apollonia on the keyboard with Bing Sunday on drums. All are musicians who move from instrument to vocal and back again during their numbers.
