Harmington Observer SEcrentric

Vol. 85 No. 80 Thursday, July 25, 1974

Farmington, Michigan

Parade tops weekend Festival events

Want A.

FARMINGTON—A parade, a fireworks demonstration, and a "Sunday in the Park" picnic are among the attractions planned for the weekend as the Farmington Founders Festival comes to an end. The annual parade will begin at 10 a.m. at the Grand River Drive In and proceeds west to Liberty Street. Michigan's Gov. William G. Mil-liken will serve as the Grand Mar-shall for the parade which will in-clude, a variety of marching bands, drum and bugle corps teams, and musical groups. The parade trophy presentations will be made at the Downtown Shopping Center, at noon on Sat-urday. Last year's winner of the Drake

Last year's winner of the Drake-shire cup, the Townsmen Drum and Bugle Corps of Leamington, Ontario, Canada will be returning to try to win the award for a sec-

The Drakeshire Cup is an award sponsored by the Drakeshire Mer-chants Association which is given to the outstanding unit in the par-ade.

A FIREWORKS display which is expected to last for nearly an hour will be presented on Friday, July 26 at the rear of Our Lady of Sorrows Church. Metropolitan National Bank of Farmington, sponsors of the fire-works program said that should rain prevent the event from taking place on Friday the display will be held on Sturday at the same time and place.

A new event, the Sunday-In the-Park, an old fashioned picnic, will be held on Sunday, July 28 from 2-6 p.m. at city park, Shiawassee and Power Roads.

Hot dogs, pop and cotton candy will be available at old time prices and there will be roller skating from 3-5 p.m.

Judging for the Senior Queen Contest for ladies 62 or older will be on Thursday, July 25, at 8 p.m. at the Showmobile in the Down-town Center.

(See FESTIVAL, Page 3)

and there will be roller skating from 3-5 p.m. Skates will be rented for 25c and the proceeds will go to the Shri-hers Hospital. A group from the Franklin Com-munity Band will provide enter-tainment in the showmobile. There will be games with prizes. "The Power of II All," a musical comedy written by June Rado and Charlene Slakey, will continue July 26, 27 and 28 at the Farming-ton Players Barn on 12 Mile Rado between Farmington and Orchard Lake Roads. A historic bus tour of Farming-ton and Farmington Hills will be presented by the League of Women Voters. The tour will is scheduled for Saturday, July 27, with buses leav-ing the Farmington Hills City Hall, 11 Milejand Orchard Lake Roads, at 1 and 330 p.m.

John Anhut, innkeeper of the Botsford Inn will crown the Senior Queen, who will ride in an antique car in the festival parade.

Founder's Festival by last year's queen Patti Adamic on Wednesday night

Board irked by Hills action

Prisk says schools don't have any surplus

By DIANE HUBEL FARMINGTON — With less than a week to go before the July 30 school millage election, discus-sion of the millage dominated the meeting of the Farmington School Board president Gary Lichtman expressed his anger and disap-pointment over the failure of the Farmington Hills City Council to adoot a resolution supporting the adopt a resolution supporting the millage. The Hills council and the school board held a special meeting June 16 during which they discussed the role of the school board in the pav-ing of Gill Rd and the Hills council attitude toward the millage.

LICHTWAN SAID that the members of the council present at the meeting indicated that they would move to adopt a resolution at their regular council meeting supporting the school boards re-quest for a four mill increase in voted operational taxes. The resolution which was ac-tually adopted at Monday's meeting did not call on voters to support the millage but rather "en-couraged all-residents to study the millage and vote." "If I sound as if I am bitter about this, it is because I am." Lichtman said. "I have tried to fos-ter a feeling of cooperation be-subted the source of the reasons the council ton was that they did not think it subter this, and the source of the reasons the council to was that they did not think it used to the source of the reasons the council to was that they did not think it used the source of the reasons the council to was their business to become in-volved in school affairs. "I find that very difficult to ac-ter the source of the reasons the council to was their business to become in-volved in school affairs. "I find that very difficult to ac-ter the source of the reasons the council to a was their business to become in-volved in school affairs. "I find that very difficult to ac-ter the source of the reasons the council to a was their business to become in-volved in school affairs."

See related story on 2A

tween these two government bodies. "It is my feeling that we were in-"After all, we serve the same vided to that meeting to see what people, we serve the same commu-thy, we serve the same colliden. Road."

WHEN THE COUNCIL first

WHEN THE COUNCLE INST began to consider the paying pro-ject the school board had indicated that they might be willing to share a portion of the expense since the road was used by children travel-ing to Gill school. Lichtman said that the school board told the council at the July

5.1

ż,

paving at the present time. DURING THE SCHOOL board meeting the board also heard a report from school district business manager Willmam Prisk. Prisk said he asked for time to address the board because he thought it was necessary to clear up a matter dealing with the up-coming millage election. "We have been advised that one of the reasons why people are not supporting the millage is because they do not think the money is really needed in the district, and (Continued on 2A)

72 Pages Plus Supplements

Fifteen Cents

er will begin collecting for August is-ues of your hometown newspaper. e pay him 75e ... you'll be elf of a continuing insight

First Section 16 16 Letters Columns Suburban Life Third Section

Business Fourth Section Classified ads Fifth Section

10

3 4

Finalists in the Farmington Founders Festival queen contest were (from left) Carol siewicz, Linda Foran, Gail Nymshack, Joan Ohlmacher and Susan Reed. (Photo by Ralph Strey, Terri Zimmerman, Deborah Zaremba, Colleen Cotter, Brooke Jenks, Cindy Luka- Evert). -91-1