

'Mobiles' offer instant fun

From the outside, they resemble ordinary trailers. Inside, however, they contain all sorts of ways to pass an otherwise dull day. Bring down the flap of the puppet-mobile and you have an instant children's theater. Anchor the skatemobile and an ordinary parking lot becomes a roller rink. Open the door of the movie-mobile and a Bijou-on-wheels is yours.

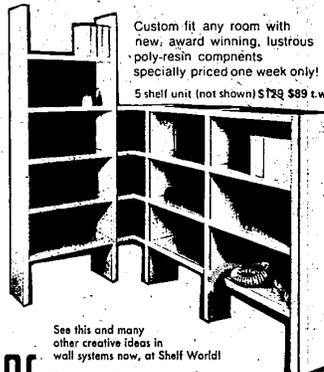

These and other assorted mobiles are part of the county's recreation fleet. They are designed to satisfy the temporary entertainment needs of any group or individual in the county. Reserve the mobile unit of your choice, and relax while entertainment comes to you.

Last Saturday, The Community House in Birmingham wheeled in most of the county recreation fleet. While the day was planned to familiarize the community with the available service, many came with just the thought of a pleasant afternoon in mind.

Some toured the units. Others tried out, rather shakily, a pair of skates. One youngster got so enthralled watching a puppet show that she chewed her finger and her doll's hand while she watched every move.
