

Davis-Dennis

Mr. and Mrs. Billy E. Davis of Melbourne, Fla. announce the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Kay, to George Edward Dennis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Dennis of Farmington Hills.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Melbourne High School and attended Middle Tennessee State University.

Her fiancé was graduated from Claresholm High School and is a 1974 graduate of Middle Tennessee State University.

An August wedding is planned in Calloway Gardens, Ga.

Mrs. Michael Pease

Janet Suzanne Jaster and Michael Pease were married recently in the United Orchard Methodist Church. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jaster of Farmington Hills. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.J. Pease Jr., also of Farmington Hills.

The bride wore a gown of off-white jersey with pearl beading. She carried a bouquet of white roses and peach stephanotis and wore matching flowers in her hair.

The couple will make their home in Plymouth.

Cicerello-Schieferstein

Farmington Hills announce the engagement of their daughter, Gina Marie, to Bradley Gordon Schieferstein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schieferstein of Omaha, Neb.

The bride-elect is a student at Providence Hospital School of Nursing. Her fiancé is a student at Oregon State University.

An August 1975 wedding is planned.

Club Circuit

NEW HORIZONS asks for volunteers who will solicit pledges in connection with a 400-mile marathon run from the Mackinac Bridge to Pontiac. All proceeds will be put towards a proposed vocational rehabilitation program for Oakland County's mentally and physically handicapped who are unable to attend New Horizons' workshops in Pontiac, Madison Heights and Farmington Hills.

Volunteers must be at least 14 years of age.

Interested persons may contact "Marathon Run" in the New Horizons office in Pontiac, 338-6176.

New Horizons is a private, non-profit facility, partially supported by the United Foundation.

SENIOR CITIZENS DROP-IN CENTER has elected Marie Faunce for her fourth term as president. Ruth Henke will serve as vice president, and Teresa Leber as secretary for their second term. Ann Morgan is the new treasurer.

The club meets in the Masonic Temple on Farmington Rd. and Grand River each Monday and Wednesday from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Guests are invited to bring a sandwich for lunch. Coffee and desert is furnished by the host group.

THE 50 AND UP CLUB will meet on Thursday, July 18 in Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church, Power and Shiawassee Rds. Mass is said at 11:30 a.m. Guests are asked to bring a sandwich for lunch.

SENIOR CITIZENS SOCIAL CLUB has cancelled its July 26 meeting due to festivities during the Farmington Founders Festival.

The next regular meeting will take place in the United Methodist Church on Friday, Aug. 9.

All club news and announcements for this column are to be addressed: Club Circuit, Box 69, Southfield, 48075, and must arrive on the Monday prior to Thursday publication.

Youth help fight cancer

Three Farmington youth have arranged for a booth at the Founders Festival to aid the American Cancer Society.

Ten-year-old Fred Morrison of 22810 Lakeway and twin brothers Jeff and Greg Cameron, aged 13, will be selling helium filled balloons on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, July 25-27. It is their first venture in raising funds for charity.

Young Morrison cajoled his father into underwriting the cost of the balloons and the helium, and his mother into a clown costume "to attract attention."

The balloons will be sold for a minimum donation of 40 cents.

Twins are born

Mr. and Mrs. Neil F. Vorbeck of Farmington announce the birth of twins, Jason Alan and Jodie Diane, born July 5 at St. Mary's Hospital.

The twins have a sister, Stephanie Irene. The proud grandparents are Mrs. and Mrs. Joseph W. Vorbeck of Palmetto, Florida, and Mrs. Irene Parmenter of Westland.

The father of the baby, Neil F. Vorbeck, is a graduate of Westfield High School.

Couple celebrates 50th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph A. Koskella celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary with 70 guests at a reception and dinner given by their children on June 30 at Prince of Peace Lutheran Church, Farmington Hills.

They have three children, thirteen grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

THURS. FRI. SAT. ONLY

the brush two ways!

LUCITE WALL PAINT GOES FROM THICK AND CREAMY IN THE CAN TO RICH AND SMOOTH ON YOUR WALL. Because LUCITE is thick, it goes on fast and easy. Never needs stirring, covers well, doesn't drip like ordinary paint. There's less mess. Available in a wide selection of lively, livable colors that dry velvety flat in just 30 minutes. And matching LUCITE interior enamels with TEFLON-E are perfect for trim and hard-to-keep-clean areas. Tough and durable, most dirt and stains wipe right off with just a sponge and household detergent.

*Du Pont trademark for its paint additives

Wall Paint $6.49 Gal.

Interior Enamel with TEFLON-E $7.99 Qt.

Nationwide tests on homes in all types of climate prove that Du Pont LUCITE house paint outlasts five other largest-selling national brands. When compared on wood siding—the exterior material most commonly painted by homeowners—LUCITE lasted longer 9 out of 10 times. LUCITE means longer lasting protection, fewer repaint jobs. It does the job right, the first time.
