BEVERLY HILLS — Approximately 250 youths gathered for a party at 18215 Gould Court on Saturday night erupted into a rock-and-bottle-throwing melee when officers arrived to investigate.

Patrolman Roger St. Jean of the Beverly Hills Police Department observed the large number of youths milling in the area between the home of Theodore William Petersen and the Medical Village parking lot.

Jaycees to hold recruitment night

The Birmingham Jaycees will hold a membership recruitment night to entertain prospective new members at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 25, at Machus Red Fox Restaurant, Telegraph and Maple roads.

All young men from the Birmingham, Bloomfield and Beverly Hills areas between the ages of 21 and 35 are invited to attend.

The featured speaker will be the Hon. William P. Hampton, presiding judge of the Oakland County Circuit Court.

JUDGE HAMPTON is a former Birmingham Jaycee who received the distinguished service award from the Birmingham chapter in 1969.

He will speak briefly on Jaycee activities as well as of his experiences as a judge and in the Michigan legislature.

The Birmingham Jaycees are involved in community and social projects. Their annual pumpkin sale in October provides college scholarships for area students.

PROCEEDS FROM the sale of jelly are used to benefit emotionally disturbed children.

In addition, the group provides

Christmas decorations for Birmingham merchants.

Other activities include an annual Christmas party for underprivileged children, the annual Easter egg hunt and the annual Michigan Week Parade.

For further information, call C. Bruce Taylor, 644-3727.

CMU aide assigned

Central Michigan University student teachers assigned to elementary school classrooms in Bloomfield Hills, Royal Oak and Pontiac area schools will work with a new supervisor this fall.

Joanne Hummel, 370 Gunder, Rochester, has been appointed as a new university supervisor in the Oakland County area.

Mrs. Hummel will counsel student teachers assigned to local schools and will help supervising teachers plan and conduct in-service programs.

Mrs. Hummel is a former college and public school teacher. She served as a student teaching supervisor and lecturer at Oakland University from 1970 to 1974 and as an elementary classroom teacher in the Utica Community Schools from 1963 to 1968.

She earned her BA degree from Oakland University and her MA degree from Michigan State University.

In her new assignment, Mrs. Hummel will work closely with Alan Ellsberg, CMU Oakland County area supervisor for secondary school student teachers. Ellsberg also is a Troy school board member.

Ostomy unit sets meeting

The Oakland County Ostomy Group, Inc. will begin its fifth year with a meeting, Sunday, Sept. 15 at 2:15 p.m. at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac.

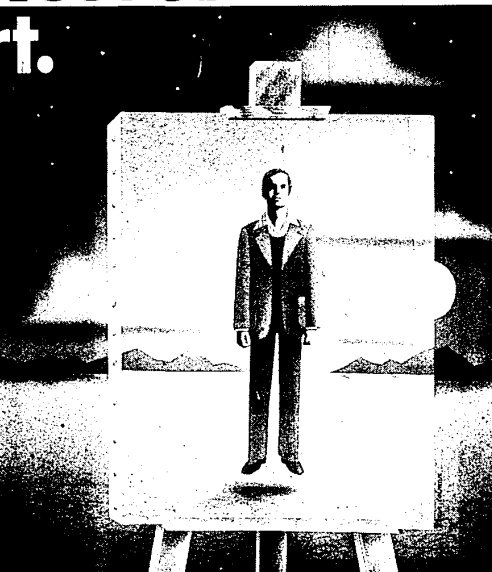

Speaker for the program will be Dr. G.P. Conway, urologist, who will talk about urinary diversions. Reports from the recent national convention of the United Ostomy Association held in Denver will be presented.

The Oakland County organization, affiliated with the national association, is a self-help group for persons who have had surgery of the colon or bladder resulting in a colostomy, ileostomy or urostomy.

Members of the family are cordially invited to meetings, as well as physicians, surgeons, and nursing personnel. Meetings are held the third Sunday of each month, from September through June at the hospital.

Members of the group are available to make visits to new patients in the hospitals upon request of the physician or surgeon. For further information, contact Mrs. Louis Haas Jr., 646-4011, president, or Mrs. Jean Leonard, 662-3862.

A lesson in Art.

"I paint what I see," is the artist's classic reminder.

Yet, from the eye to the mind to the brush, an image can change form drastically. In Duchamp, a male descending a staircase can become a geometric image of projected light. A swirling sea of thick yellows and blues can be sky to Van Gogh.

That is the basis of art. That crucial process through the brain where nature becomes abstract, where simple sight becomes vision.

In much the same way that an artist's style is his expression, so too, are you perceived. By your style.

At Osmun's, we're patrons of no glossiness. Classical good looks in exciting new interpretations.

Not excess, not sumptuous, but the kind of clothes that will make you be seen in the right perspective when you go back to class.

Yes, at Osmun's, we may not know art. But we know what works.
