

Mrs. Lew Levitt and Mrs. Jack Rubin are ready for the ORT Safari '74, at noon, Oct. 10 at Hudson's downtown.

Ort Safari stalks fashion

Whether hunting a few fall look, stalking a tasty luncheon or just scouting for Thursday afternoon entertainment the Ort Safari '74 on Oct. 10 at Hudson's downtown will provide some kind of catch.

The safari, an ORT fund raiser, includes a personal appearance by Coty award winning designer Kasper, his collections and others along with a gourmet lunch and music.

For further information and reservations contact Mrs. David Redisch at 557-4271 or Mrs. Arthur Brown at 352-1298.

Jolie Gabor answers all

Jolie Gabor, "Mama" of all the Gabor's, will open the season for Pontiac Oakland Town Hall on Wednesday, at the Kingswood Theatre, Bloomfield Hills.

Jolie Gabor has all the answers to all the things you always wanted to know about Zsa Zsa, Magda, and Eva. Born in Budapest, Jolie as a child set her heart on becoming an actress. However, at the age of sixteen, a whirlwind courtship resulted in a unique "six month plan", whereby she would be free to leave him and go on the stage. When the six months ended, however, she was pregnant with Magda, then Zsa Zsa, and finally Eva.

Trapped in Hungary during most of World War II, she finally escaped to America on an old Portuguese cargo ship. Jolie opened a small jewelry shop and started a new life as a career woman.

The theme of Jolie's life is "It's Never Too Late - a message to all women who despair, who shudder at the passing years, who fail to realize that life must be met and lived and adversities conquered."

The 10:30 lecture will be followed with a celebrity luncheon at the Kingsley Inn. For luncheon reservations, contact Mrs. Richard Brown at 698-1222.

Due to an unavoidable delay in the movie he is making, David Niven, who was scheduled to be the November 6 speaker will be unable to appear. However, we have been fortunate to obtain Arlene Francis to replace him.

Less than fifty tickets remain for the forthcoming season of Pontiac Oakland Town Hall, which may be obtained by calling Mrs. William Kennedy at 692-3523 or Mrs. George Newton at 622-4834.
