

Snoopy is ready for the beach in his striped trunks, sun hat and shades

Snoopy in night shirt and cap

Snoopy flies in style

Barbie used to be the only doll on the market with her own wardrobe. But Barbie has some competition in the clothes category and it's not from Ken.

That Joe Cool of the high school set, the Red Baron atop a doghouse and ace writer Snoopy is no longer living life merely in a cullar.

No sir, Snoopy can now be dressed to the hilt in a wardrobe designed especially for him. And who should ever be more fashionable than that personable canine?

The Snoopy fashions, recently presented by Hudson's, cover any aspect of a dog's life and fit any size Snoopy your youngster may have.

BEFITTING THE jet-setting pup is a denim ensemble, complete with snap button jacket and full length jeans. At night sleepy time wear comes in a night shirt and cap.

Or Snoopy will surely steal the scene in his beach ensemble of striped trunks, sun hat and what else but a pair of shades?

For more athletic endeavors Snoopy has his own tennis outfit with an emblem of Woodstock on the shirt.

Though Snoopy won't steal the fashion spotlight from Barbie, the four footed creature will certainly be the best dressed stuffed animal on the block.

Hadassah presents Education Day

The Metropolitan Detroit Chapter of Hadassah will present Education Day at the Jewish Community Center Book Fair at 10 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 12.

Mrs. Herta Loeser will discuss her current book "Give and Take," which deals with women, work, and volunteering.

Mrs. Loeser has been affiliated with career and vocational advisory service particularly with women.

At the afternoon session beginning at 1 p.m., Mrs. Ellis Rifkin of Southfield will introduce I. L. Kenen, editor of the "Near East Report," a weekly newsletter on American policy in the near east.

Kenen will discuss his book, "American Policy in the Middle East."

Lunch at $3.50 per person will be served at noon.

Participating in the event are Mrs. Jerome Kaufman of Bloomfield Hills, chapter president; Mrs. Abraham Kutlov of Detroit, education vice-president and Mrs. Merle Solway of Bloomfield Hills, program vice-president.

Others are Mrs. Stanley Burkoff of Birmingham and Mrs. Bernard Colton of Southfield, Book Fair chairmen; Mrs. Bernard Kreiger of Southfield, hospitality chairman and Mrs. Daniel Knopfer of West Bloomfield, usher chairman.

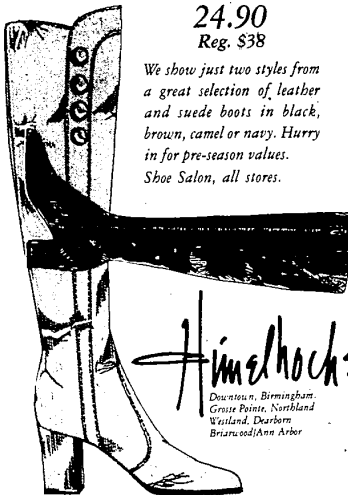

I. L. KENEN

BONANZA BOOT SALE

24.90
Reg. $38

We show just two styles from a great selection of leather and suede boots in black, brown, camel or navy. Hurry in for pre-season values. Shoe Salon, all stores.

Downtown, Birmingham
Grass Pointe, Northland
Westland, Dearborn
Briarwood/Ann Arbor

"HARVI DRESSED ME"

In his

Weekly
Special

Wool & Wool Blends

Pantsuits

Solids, Plaids, Checks

Sizes 6-16

Reg. $125

$68

Thru Wed. Oct. 30

HARVI'S

Make it your championship season

Tennis, everyone, from the beginner to the seasoned pro, all the S.F.A. way.

From classic whites to smashing new court colors, in The Active Sports Shop.

CELEBRATING FIFTY YEARS OF FASHION

Second at Lothrop, Detroit
Somerset Mall, Big Beaver at Coolidge, Troy

Black & Pepper
Jersey speeded with a flourish of ruffles
160
Seasonings by chudiks
294 EAST BROWN • BIRMINGHAM • MI 7-1300

3x3" size photos, 4 opening
2 1/2 x 3 1/2" polaroid size photos, 4 opening
2x3" wallet size photos, 5 opening
Gallery Picture Frames at great savings... a compact way to display treasured family snapshots in four or five picture arrangements. Brushed goldtone or silvertone metal frames for wall or surface display, non-reflecting glass openings, rich moire backing. By Burnes of Boston. Special metal polishing cloth included.
Now 6.50
Jacobson's
APPAREL STORE
Maple at Bates
Birmingham