

WHAT MICHIGAN NEEDS IS A GOOD, HONEST GOVERNOR.

Both candidates for Governor have made promises.

The difference is, Gov. Milliken has kept his.

Gov. Milliken created new jobs.

It was Gov. Milliken who produced 236,400 new jobs for the people of Michigan, through initiatives in tax incentives, transportation programs, and expanded domestic and foreign markets for Michigan products.

Gov. Milliken cut taxes.

It was Gov. Milliken who reduced state taxes by almost $500 million in the past two years, and returned $280 million to Michigan city and county governments this year.

Gov. Milliken aided education.

It was Gov. Milliken who produced the historic school aid legislation that now assures every child in Michigan an equal chance for a quality education.

Gov. Milliken helped the unemployed.

It was Gov. Milliken who came to the aid of Michigan's unemployed by eliminating the "waiting week" requirement, and extending unemployment benefits from 26 to 39 weeks, giving the average family of four $1,781 worth of additional benefits.

Gov. Milliken helped the veteran.

And it was Gov. Milliken who fought for Michigan's 400,000 Vietnam veterans, leading the fight to put the Vietnam Veteran's Bonus on the ballot.

Governor William G. Milliken.

You can believe what he says. Because he believes what he says. And his proven leadership, judgment and trust are on the record.

AND IT HAS ONE.

THIS NOV. 5TH, VOTE TO KEEP GOV. MILLIKEN GOVERNOR.
