Celebrities to model in show for handicapped

BY MARGARET MILLER

Celebrity models and glamorous fashions will fill Raleigh House in Southfield Wednesday and retarded and handicapped children will benefit.

The occasion is the Celebrities on Parade luncheon, fashion show and boutique to be presented by the Redford Suburban League. (RSL).

Besides the fashions from Matthews of Birmingham, to be modeled by women including Dollie Cole and former Miss America Pam Eldred, there will be a display of period costumes with RSL members doing the modeling.

Included will be a couple of dresses that have played a part in helping league projects that for nearly two decades have been benefitting retarded youngsters.

THE DAY'S ACTIVITIES will begin at 10 a.m. when the sale of boutique items begins.

A hospitality hour will begin at 11 a.m. and lunch will be served at noon. The fashion show will follow.

MODELS, in addition to Mrs. Cole and Miss Eldred, include television newscaster Doris Biscoe and Mrs. Edna Slavik, former chairman of drives of Aid to Leukemia-Stricken Children (ALSAC) and wife of a Birmingham builder.

Wives of other well-known Detroit personalities also will be models. They include Judy McCarthy, whose husband, J.P., is famed in radio.

From the sports world will come Dorothy Cash, wife of former Detroit Tiger Norm Cash. Theresa Delvacio, wife of Red Wing manager Alex Delvacio, Deborah Coleman, whose husband, Joe, pitches for the Tigers and Karen Yarborough, wife of Detroit Lions tackle Jim Yarborough.

Completing the list of celebrity models is Lila Masson, a former Mrs. America and a member of the Redford Suburban League.

ONE OF THE DRESSES that will be part of a special historical fashion show will be a silvery gown that Irene Soucek, the first ways and means chairman of the league, wore to a millionaire's party in 1955.

Also in that show will be June Hendry, wearing a gown of the 1890s. Gloria Savick in a dress of 1905 vintage, Enid Dobbert as a 1928 flapper and Elbie Owen in a 1935 Jean Harlow dress.

Jeanne Alberti will model a dress of a style that might be ahead for the year 2000.

Women to study

A Catholic Women's Day program will be given Nov. 7 in the St. Thomas More Catholic Church hall, 4580 N. Adams Road, Troy, from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Sponsored by the Council of Catholic Women: Detroit Archdiocese, the free program's purpose is to motivate and show how the individual woman fits into her parish and how she can become involved with whatever time she has.

Any Catholic women in five vicariate areas, including Birmingham-Bloomfield-Troy, Southeast Oakland, Southfield-Farmington, the Vicariate of the Lakes and Pontiac-Rochester have been invited.

MRS. HENRY TOMASZYCKI, program chairperson, said there will be guest speakers and six workshops on family affairs, church affairs, public affairs, organization services, international and community affairs. She said

Lamaze childbirth classes will start

The Plymouth Childbirth Education Association will sponsor a series of Lamaze Childbirth classes beginning Wednesday in North Farmington Baptist Church, 32500 W. Thirteen Mile, Farmington. Meetings are held once a week at 7:30 p.m.

Classes are taught by nurses who will give instructions in neuromuscular control and effective breathing techniques which help the mother to participate in the birth of her child.

Husbands are urged to attend but it is not necessary.

Registration information may be had by contacting Doris Cross, 372 E. Blunk, Plymouth; phone 455-7750.

coffee and dessert will be provided, but the women are asked to bring their own lunches.

"We want as many area women as possible to get involved in this day of sharing and learning," Mrs. Tomaszycski said. For further information call 543-4463.

WE BELIEVE IN... W.I.N.

Dear Customers,

President Ford has announced his program to Whip Inflation Now. Many are poking fun at it, others are ignoring it. We're doing something about it.

Toy suppliers, like others, have raised their wholesale prices repeatedly during the year. Our prices have moved up accordingly. Effective immediately we are taking several steps to W.I.N.

1. Reducing prices on items we have made ourselves. (Example: 10-40% Savings on all doll dresses).

2. Rolling prices back to February-April levels wherever earlier purchases allow this (Example: hundreds of Corgi and Britains Gift Sets reduced 10%).

3. Offering SPOT SALES to balance our inventories. This will be largely unadvertised, so shop often. See This Week's Special!

The President has asked that we waste less and purchase wisely. Buying good quality is one way to waste less. We are offering best quality toys at painfully good prices. This pledge is good through November 30th, 1974, for merchandise presently on hand.
