Brownie troop gets underway

A new Brownie Troop got underway this week sponsored by the Farmington Public Library with leaders Nancy Dizon, Nancy Enright and Deli Savage.

Troop No. 89 is composed of first, second and third graders from Forest, Our Lady of Sorrows and St. Fabian elementary schools.

The Brownie aspirers were invested by two year Brownies Jennifer Dougekos, Erin Lantry, Angela Manalakis and Linda Renard when the traditional rites were performed this month.

The young girls have already chosen their first service project, which will be decorating bulletin boards in the library through the winter months.

Nursery staff to host show

The Adat Shalom Nursery School will present an audio-visual show entitled "The Hope of a New Tomorrow" on Wednesday, Nov. 13 at 8 p.m. in the Adat Shalom Synagogue Social Hall.

This original slide presentation was created and produced by the nursery school staff to describe "what life is all about" in the Adat Shalom Nursery School.

Anyone interested in the school program may join the staff, parents and friends of Adat Shalom for the evening.

Former columnist undergoes surgery

Marie Long, a columnist for the Farmington Enterprise and the Farmington Enterprise & Observer, was admitted to St. Mary Hospital in Livonia to undergo surgery this week.

Mrs. Long wrote the column "Local News" for the community papers for 18 years. The work she did gathering local news for the paper played a large part in gaining her the title of Farmington Sesquicentennial Queen during the city's sesquicentennial celebrations this summer.

Central Church has new minister

Bob J. Brandon, the new minister for the Central Church of Christ in Farmington Hills, is 32 years old. He and his wife Patricia, and their children Christopher, 12, Timothy, 6, Michelle, 5, and Susan, 2, come to the church after service in the mission field in Southeast Asia.

Brandon was minister for the Church of Christ in Bangkok, Thailand, and also a teacher in the Bangkok School of Religion, a school dedicated to teaching native Thai, Chinese, Laotian and Burmese men to become preachers.

He is a graduate of the Sunset School of Preaching in Lubbock, Tex., and studied Greek Studies in Lubbock Christian College in Lubbock.

Before entering the mission field, he served as minister for churches in Texas and Tennessee. He also organized special Bible meetings and training sessions in six other states and three countries.

Poole to conduct 45th concert season

The Scandinavian Symphony Orchestra with Valter Poole conducting will present its 45th concert season opener at 8:20 p.m. Saturday at Southfield High School.

Mischa and Hortense Mischakoff, violin soloists, will be featured in a performance of the music of Bach, Grieg and Weber.

Maestro Poole was with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra from 1927 to his retirement in 1970.

Born in Pooleville, Okla., a small ranch town settled by his family, Poole was graduated in 1925 from the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston with special honors in String Quartet and Ensemble.

He later studied with Maurice Vieux, professor of viola at the Conservatory of Paris.

In addition to his orchestra activities, he is professor of music at Wayne State University where he conducts many performances with the Wayne State Orchestra and Wayne Ensemble each year.

For ticket information call Mrs. Ethyl Garrett at 532-9099.
