

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS★

9th District

DONALD O. BARLOW

A native of Oakland County, Donald Barlow, 27, is a business graduate of Michigan State University running for his first term as County Commissioner. He is an industrial sales representative for Pennwalt Corp. An officer in the Madison Heights Jaycees. Married with two children.

10th District

RONALD CUNNINGHAM

A Michigan Cancer Foundation Trustee and Royal Oak Boys Club Director, Ron Cunningham is seeking his first term as Oakland County Commissioner of the 10th District. Ron, a sales representative for Detroit Strip Division, Cyclops Corp., received his undergraduate degree from Eastern Michigan University and has long been active in the Michigan Jaycees.

11th District

ROBERT A. BUTTONS*

Twenty-nine-year-old Bob Buttons is sandwiching his studies at the Detroit College of Law between sessions of campaigning for his second term as a County Commissioner. He is a life-time resident of the Royal Oak-Pleasant Ridge area he represents, a Wayne State University graduate.

District 12

WALLACE F. GABLER*

Commissioner Gabler has lived in Royal Oak all his life. He has served five years as City Commissioner and seven years as County Commissioner. He's a graduate of Central Michigan University and the Detroit College of Law. He is married with three grown children.

District 13

ROBERT W. PAGE

Page has twenty years of experience with local government including Mayor of Birmingham for three terms, City Commissioner for 13 years and seven years on the Planning Board. He is a member of the Committee of One Hundred, South Oakland Hospital Authority and is Vice Chairman of the Community Action Council.

14th District

HENRY W. HOOT*

Hoot, educated at the Detroit Bible College and the University of Detroit, is running for reelection to his second term as an Oakland County Commissioner. A resident of Bloomfield Township, he is an account executive with Sparks Broadcasting in Royal Oak.

District 15

LILLIAN MOFFITT*

Mrs. Moffitt has been a Commissioner for one term. During this time she was chairman, Special Manpower Committee; chairman, Mass Transportation Symposium and Vice Chairman, Committee on Organization. She received Ford Motor Company's "Citizen of the Year" award for community involvement. Married, with a college-age son.

District 16

WILLIAM T. PATTERSON

Patterson served as Commissioner for one term, 1970-72. He has been chairman of the Clawson Recreation Board and a member of the Clawson City Council. He is presently chairman of the Clawson Aging Committee. Patterson is married with two grown sons.

District 17

RICHARD V. VOGT*

Vogt, 43, is a member of the Area Agency of Aging's Advisory Council for Oakland County. Incumbent Vogt has better than 97 percent board meeting attendance record. He led fight to lower taxes by $1.5 million in 1973. An accountant with Chrysler Corp., Navy veteran. Married with two children.

District 18

DOROTHY MAE WEBB

A Ferndale housewife, Mrs. Webb's aim is to deal with taxation, inflation and crime. "I have first-hand knowledge of the sharp increase in taxes on homes for the past two years. The people most affected are our senior citizens and this is tragic."

District 19

PAUL A. NIDA

Nida is a practicing attorney with several years experience as a Certified Public Accountant. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan and Wayne Law School. Nida believes his accounting background helps in working with county financial matters. He is married and has four children.

District 20

BETTY E. HOOSE

"I believe the government should be the servant of the people, not their master or protector," states Mrs. Hoose. Her aim is to bring a fresh look to county government and to open better two-way communication between County government and the voter.

21st District

PHYLLIS R. HANDLER

Phyllis R. Handler, a resident of Southfield is seeking the office of County Commissioner for the 21st District. Mrs. Handler has been an active member of the Community for many years as well as an active Republican.

District 22

MARY M. DEARBORN*

Mrs. Dearborn has resided in Birmingham for 30 years. She has been president, League of Women Voters of Birmingham-Bloomfield and an Oakland County Commissioner since 1968. Mrs. Dearborn has also been active in community service such as Camp Oakland and Oakland County Chairman for the United Foundation.

District 23

PAUL E. KASPER*

Kasper, an attorney, is completing his third term as Commissioner. He is immediate past chairman of the Oakland County Board of Commissioners and is presently serving as chairman of the Personnel Practices Committee. A resident of Bloomfield Township, he is married and has four children.

District 27

JOHN J. MC DONALD

McDonald is a graduate of U of D, Wayne State and the Detroit College of Law. He is a practicing attorney and served as Assistant Prosecuting Attorney for Oakland County 1970-73. He has also taught school 1961-64. McDonald is married with three children and resides in Farmington Hills.

District 24

LEW L. COY*

In 1969, Commissioner Coy, 54, was appointed to the Oakland County Board of Health for a five year term and was chairman of that board until January, 1974. His priorities are "to promote coordination between departments, eliminate duplication and keep the budget down."

District 25

PATRICK M. NOWAK*

Commissioner Nowak was named "one of Michigan's five outstanding young men in 1974" by the Michigan Jaycees. His efforts toward correcting property tax laws have resulted in a bill passed by the House which would ease the burden on home owners. Nowak has been in civic affairs over ten years.

District 26

JOSEPH R. MONTANTE*

Dr. Montante served as chairman of the West Bloomfield Township Planning Commission 1970-71. A County Commissioner for two years, "With the fantastic urbanization of our county, it is necessary to preserve our life style", he stated, "with dedicated people who are aware of the problems."

RUTH MC NAMEE

•EXPERIENCE
•INTEGRITY
•TOTAL
REPRESENTATION

63rd DISTRICT,
STATE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES