

Marilyn Turner's make believe room is real at Gorman's

Room designs aid charity

Somebody finally thought of a new way to raise charity funds in Detroit.

"They've done it for years in New York and we've been working on it for awhile, too" said Bernard Moray of Gorman's Gallery of Southfield.

Tuesday, Gorman's will unveil (for a price, of course) that idea called "Designs for Dimes."

Under the direction of Ed Born, head of Gorman's design studio, seven model rooms, designed around the lives of seven of Detroit's celebrities, have been completed for the project.

A donation to the March of Dimes campaign will enable patrons to roam through the rooms before they are unveiled to the public.

The rooms were done for Vic Caputo; Norm Cash; Dollie Cole; Charlie Sanders; Tom Schoenith; Bob Talbert and Marilyn Turner.

The designers who did the rooms were Maryann Smith, Jean Jacobson, Janice Mittler, Sue VanDyke, Hannah McTaggart, Roger Mitchell, Sharon Alber, Toni Michel, Larry Klein, Barb Boraks and Born.

The preview will be held from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. Tuesday at Gorman's, Twelve Mile Road at Telegraph. The celebrities will be on hand to see "their" rooms during the preview.

Individual items from each of the seven rooms will be auctioned off at 9 p.m. One-hundred percent of the proceeds from the two events will go to the March of Dimes.

Tickets for the event may be obtained through Gorman's, The March of Dimes at 864-6000 or at the door.
