Volunteers

This column describing the volunteer needs in Oakland County is co-sponsored by the Junior League of Birmingham and the Oakland County Volunteer Bureau at 642-7272. Requests for volunteers should also be made to the volunteer bureau.

CAMP OAKLAND YOUTH PROGRAMS: Oxford, Mich. The camp provides school age children without permanent homes with a warm, home-like atmosphere for as long as needed. Children are between ages seven and 15, attend public schools in Oxford and function as normally as possible within the community. Adult volunteers are needed as big brothers or big sisters to the children and take them on frequent visits to their own homes over the weekends or holidays.

A.I.D.E.: 6255 N. Telegraph, Birmingham provides speakers upon request to the Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills public schools as an enrichment program in the classroom. Anyone with a particular knowledge about a hobby, collections, travel or profession is needed as part of the volunteer speakers bureau. Volunteers are also needed to fill requests from teachers for a particular speaker and in the area of speaker recruitment. Work may be done in the office or at home. Office hours are flexible but a three hour shift is preferred.

BOTSFORD HOSPITAL: Eight Mile and Grand River, Farmington needs Volunteers one day a week from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Training is provided. Aid is needed in emergency room, information desk, feeding patients, or transporting patients to and from physical therapy.
