'Funastics' offered

A new course designed for women is being offered in the next session of activities by the Farmington YMCA at Westbrook School.

The class, "Funastics for Women," will be taught by Jim Hafke, gymnastics instructor and coach of the championship Gym J's, girls gymnastics team.

It is a new concept in women's fitness classes, a combination of slimnastics, trimnastics, and basic gymnastic exercises and movements, with emphasis on fun towards a trimmer figure.

Class times are Monday from 7-8 p.m. and/or Saturday from 12-1 p.m. A fee will be required.

Classes for children are offered both after school and on Saturday. Registrations are being accepted at the YMCA office, 28100 Farmington Road or at Westbrook School, 21120 Osamus, on the first day of each class.

All classes begin this week.

Club plans boutique

The Women of North Farmington plan an afternoon of cards, dessert and boutique of holiday items Wednesday, Dec. 4.

The event will take place in Our Lady of Sorrows social hall and will run from 12 noon until 4 p.m.

The holiday boutique will include hand-crafted items, unusual ideas and gifts for the Christmas season. Admission to this event is free to the public; however, those wishing to play cards will be asked a donation.

A bonus for the guests will be a performance, from the second act of the "Nutcracker Suite," staged by the Evelyn Kreason Dance Studio.

The pre-holiday affair has become an annual event for the club, a service-oriented organization which gives money each year to benefit a number of groups in the Farmington area.

Reservations for card players are necessary and must be made with Mary Bertsch, at 474-9054, or Elaine Rousseau, at 626-6235, before Nov. 30.

Yiddish star to lecture

The Sholem Aleichem Institute will present well known Yiddish actor and radio personality, Harry Weinberg at 8:45 p.m. Friday, Nov. 22, at the institute, 28555 Middlebelt Road, Farmington.

Weinberg will speak in English recounting highlights of the golden era of the Yiddish theater.

He came to America in 1910 as a professional actor and played in New York, Philadelphia and Cleveland for 25 years with such stars as Molly Picon and Menasha Skulnik.

He hosted Weinberg's Yiddish Radio Program on stations WJBK and WSLB for many years. Admission to the talk is free and refreshments will be served.

Norman Rockwell's
"TINY TIM"
authentically reproduced on
Gorham Fine China

Commemorative printing on back

The legendary characters of Charles Dickens, Tiny Tim and Bob Cratchit, vividly recreated by America's most loved artist Norman Rockwell, are beautifully reproduced in full color on Gorham Fine China. This 1974 Annual Collector's Edition was inspired by the Saturday Evening Post cover illustration for December 15, 1934. Tiny Tim, a crippled lad who could soar above his personal misfortune, to say, "God bless us, everyone!" was the true spirit of Christmas.

You can own this outstanding work of art on Gorham Fine China, an 8 1/2" decorative plate trimmed in 24 Karat gold... only $12.50
