

Seaholm wins, 73-69

Hawks lose in overtime

Birmingham Seaholm came through when it counted—in an overtime period—and beat Farmington Harrison, 73-69, last Tuesday in a nonleague basketball game.

Seaholm, a member of the South-eastern Michigan Association, led 35-22 at halftime, and then lifted its margin to five points after three quarters.

But then coach Bob Sutter's Harrison club staged a comeback, outscoring Seaholm, 20-15, in the last quarter. Bob Mason and Mark Borek led the comeback with a total of 13 points in the fourth quarter. Mason, a 6-4 center, sank a hook shot with two seconds left in regulation time to tie it at 67 all.

Seaholm outscored Harrison, 6-2, in the overtime on baskets by Tom Foell and Bob Denning, and two free throws by Jim Peterson.

Mason led all scorers with 26 points on 12 field goals and two of four foul shots. Borek added 11 points and Jeff Otto had eight. Nine Harrison players scored in the losing effort.

Dan Bean led Seaholm with 22 points. Doug Everhard and Denning followed with 18 and 11 points respectively.

Harrison, now 7-7 overall, plays next at home against Canton in a Western Six League game. Seaholm, now 8-4, plays Berkley High at home on Friday.
