With an eye toward the 1976 elections, the new officers of the Gakland Citizens League are launching a memberahip drive aimed at beefing up their ranks before tackling a new care of state and local candidates.

The League, a non-partisan, fact-inding organization affiliated with Detroit's Civic Searchlight, issues a voter's guide which rates candidates for all state and local offices. It is a state and local offices are received exceeding the state of the control of the state of the group hopes to widen its membership base by adding stimembers from all over Oakland County.

At present, the majority of the group's membership is centered in the Birmingham-Bloomfield area. "Our prime goal," said Cartwright, a partner in the international accounting firm off Touche Ross & Co. "is to get a representative membership from all cities and areas within Oakland County."

County jobs go to lucky

By ROBERT KIPPER

OAKLAND COUNTY—For many of the 235-300 youths who get jobs this summer with the county, it won't be who they know but how lucky they are.

That is, when the county board of commissioners approves arti-nepotism controls to reduce the practice of past years that crowded the summer payroll with the children and relatives payroll with the crisingers and crisinity of county, employes.

Last week the personnel practices committee approved a plan to dispense most of the summer jobs through a lottery system.

The resolution will now be sent to the full board, where quick approval

IN THE PAST the county has been criticated for keeping a good share of the summer jobs. "in the family," With hirings done at the discretion of department heads. 68 relatives of county employes made the summer payroll in 1974. Although a lottery system was instituted last year to check nepotism, it came too late fo affect all but a few hirings.

In 1973, 17 children or other relatives of county employes worked for the county including two children whose fathers were county commissioners at the time.

John Witherup county personnel director, agreed that summer places are county county personnel director, agreed that summer places are county county acted like more fathers and the county acted like more by happy family.

After elections, Cartwright hopes to expand the group's activities to include monitoring county government.

Civic Searchlight currently has a monitoring program which stations 18 vol. according program which stations 18 vol. accurations. The League's program would be patterned after Detroit's Cartwright said the group may eventually sponsor research reports on legislation, but that was "a long way down the road."

Now Cartwright and his vice president, Gabriel Werba of Bioomfield Towriship, are most concerned with finding a membership drive chairmin and five distinct chairmen.
