

Holiday parade set

LIVONIA—It's never too early to start thinking about Memorial Day and plan a holiday parade.

If there is any doubt, just ask one of the Livonia parade committee members who started last week to plan for the annual event.

The committee under the Livonia Allied Veterans Council agreed to double the length of the parade, which will start at Seven Mile and Farmington Road, and proceed south to the police station lot in the Civic Center.

John Boeve, past commander of the Michigan Disabled American Veterans will be the keynote speaker. Edward Warner of Livonia, an executive officer of the state group, has been invited, a committee spokesman said.

Parade judges will be on a reviewing stand at the police station entrance to select the best parade units and floats.

The motto for the holiday is "Together we stand," submitted by John Symecki, Allied Veterans Committee delegate and member of Livonia American Legion Post 32.

Persons or organizations planning to take part in the parade may contact Charles Roberts, parade commander, 34700 Pinetree, Livonia, or Bob Caporaso, adjutant, 32223 Balmoral, Garden City.
