IN ADDITION three new court actions started or were planned in the ever-widening case:

Campbell's attorney's amounced or Campbell's attorney's amounced plans to challenge what they still consider an unreasonablenge with the state. Court of Appale Priday.

Separate Challenge were made to the legality of the recent police searchs of two Campbell's relations.

Will'red Rice argand against the search of Campbell's other settorney, will begin attnifer this week and Elbert Hatchett, Campbell's other settorney, will begin a similar challenge Thursday (Blarch 6) in 6th District Court against the search of an Orchard Lake residence frequenced by Campbell.

TRORE SEARCHES added new amounts of circumstantial evidence against Campbell and in support the Detroit police claims, that Campbell is a hired gunnam of the Detroit nacrotics underworld.

only the Oakland County charges were possing against Campbell. Apparently, the warrants to search Campbell's bosses were cought and is-med without knowledge that the in-dictinuous had been dropped, even though investigating the Detroit charges was a major reason for the approval of the warrants. Because police were unwittingly in-vestigating no longer operative charges when they entered Camp-bell's residences, its astomorys are charging these searches were illegal.

Court will be 'swamped' with criminal-case rise

By ROBERT KIPPER

OAKLAND COUNTY—Bill another problem has been blamed on the current recession: the sharp rise in criminal cases handed by the Oakland County Circuit Court. Presiding Judge William P. Hampton cited worsering econoptic conditions as a major reason for what he predicted would be a temporary situation of circuit court judge being "awamped" by criminal cases. "By virtue of this crime wave. If you want to call it a crime wave. If you want to call it a crime wave. If you want to call it a crime wave. If you want to call it a crime wave. If you want to call it a crime wave. If you want to call it a crime wave. If you want to call it a crime wave. If you want to call it a crime wave. If you want to call it a crime wave. THE NUMBER of criminal cases jumped 44 per cert in 1974, according to Judge Hampton's figures, and already in 1975 have increased 59 per cyst over the previous year's figures. During the first month of 1975, criminal fillings totaled 435 cases compared to 275 cases filled during the first month of 1974.

Stating that the best deterrent to crime is a speedy trial within 80 days of the crime. Judge Hampton said it now takes an average of six months after a crime has been committed for the trial ty begin.

Recause criminal proceedings are given top priority. Judge Hampton that the wall for a divorce trial now stends beyond nine months and for an auto negligence case, beyond with that area might warrant. June The wall for divorce proceedings in Oakland County was less than the nearby counties of Wayne (where the Lawrange wait is 225 months). Genesee a statewide average of 1.861 cases per judge.

JUDGE HAMPTON discussed the rise of criminal cases along with a number of more positive subjects dur-ing a Monday press conference in his
