

Priest named at St. Owen

Father Joseph Ryder has been appointed pastor of St. Owen Roman Catholic Parish, Birmingham. He succeeds Father Edward Walling who was appointed pastor of St. Victor Parish, Gibraltar.

Ordained in 1946, Father Ryder studied at Sacred Heart Seminary, Detroit, and Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C. He has also taken graduate theology courses at Notre Dame, Fordham and Boston College. He has served on the board of the National Liturgical Conference of Washington, D.C. for six years.

Father Ryder comes to St. Owen's from St. Andrew Parish, Rochester, where he served for five years as pastor. He was also founding pastor of St. Alexander, Farmington.

Father Ryder has indicated that one of his first priorities as pastor would be to visit and bless the homes of his parishioners, a tradition he has carried on in each of the other parishes he has served.

IRVING I. KATZ

Jewish history topic for programs

In connection with the observance of the Bicentennial, Albert E. Karbal, Irving I. Katz and Gerald A. Teller are preparing multi-media programs on the history of the Jews in Detroit and Michigan.

The material will include a text-book, three filmstrip-tape presentations (1761-1880; 1880-1926; 1926-1975), and a 30-minute TV program. The material is geared for Jewish religious schools and institutions and general educational institutions as well as the general public. The project was made possible through the Rabbi Morris Adler Memorial Foundation of Congregation Shaare Zedek.

Karbal is director of the learning resource center of Congregation Shaare Zedek, Southfield.

Katz has been the executive secretary of Temple Beth El for 36 years and is known as the historiographer of the Jews of Michigan. He is the recipient of awards for his writings on Michigan Jewish history and was recently elected curator of the American Jewish Historical Society.

Rabbi Teller is the educational director of Congregation Shaare Zedek and has established a national reputation for his material in congregational Hebrew schools of the Conservative Movement.

Dear Friends,
If the service is for a young person, pallbearers are usually chosen from schoolmates or young friends. For an older person, church, business, fraternal, or social friends should be chosen. It is a distinct honor to be selected as a pallbearer.

Respectfully,

Edward J. Lynch.
