'Paul Reveres' to ride Saturday

FARMINGTON—The IRh of April British are coming, Officials in both in '75 has come and gone but the American Legion's re-enactment of Pelli Reverse's midnight ride is still to take place.

American Legion Poss 346 had originally planned to send two riders from the post at 11775 Grand River on April 15 bearing Bloentennial proclamations to officials at city offices in Farmington and Farmington Hills. But the wheels in a Constitutional democracy turn slowly.

NOW TRAT THE necessary signatures have been made and the seals affect, the riders don't bear news that the events.

A campfire has been set for Satur-day nighs featuring ceremonies, skits, patrol awards and a religious service. The conservation association is lo-cated on Newton Raod between Com-merce and Oakley Park roads. There is an admission charge for adults.

The riders are alated to leave the legion hall at 10 am. Saturday. Nate Little, a sergeant in the acciliary mounted division of the Farmington Hills police department, will head up Grand River to Farmington City Hall is son will ride up Orchard Lake Road to the Hills city offices. City officials will be on hand to accept the special prepared scroll of proclamation from the riders, who will be decked out in full 1778 regalls. The whole thing is being coordinated by Glen Griffin of the Atherican Legion.

The ride will mark the official begin-ning of the Bicentennial edebration in the two cities.

Koney Island

Announces the opening of their new restaurant at

37125 GRAND RIVER & HALSTEAD RD. next to K-Mart

Specializing in:

KONEY ISLAND HOT DOGS. HAMBURGERS & CHILL .

Hamburger Patties

Cheeseburgers Sandwiches

Fish & Chips English Style

Shish Kabab with Rice Pilal & Greek Breed

Greek Salads

Homemade Greek Pastas

Mini-Breakfast 7_. a.m.-11 a.m. 99°

Crift Sapplies, Oil Palatings & Frame 23612 Farmington Rd., Formington 474-5943 Englander Triangle is looking for a very special type of salesperson...

EUROPEAN $7-$50

THIS 'n THAT

OILS FRAMES $200,535

> to serve our very special clientele it takes a certain kind of person to know how to help people choose fine furniture that creates a room rather than clutters it. The people who buy our furniture must receive the care and attention the Englander triangle customers have been getting for 44 years—so if you're our kind of salesperson, we're prepared to make you an offer which includes.

- Unusually high earnings
- Company paid long term disability
- Company paid major medical ins rance
- Liberal vacation policy
- No Sundays or Holidays
- Company paid Life Insurance Convenient Suburban locations
- CALL MRS. HALLET AT 398 4950 FOR AN IN-PERSON INTERVIEW.

Scouts packing up for camping events THE EVENTS which will begin at 10 s.m. Bigurday, May 17, are open to the public. Visitors will also be able to inspect campattes for a close-up view of equipment, cooking techniques and other features of Scout camping. Webelow dens will be able to enter the cooking the control of the cooking the cooking

Farmington area Scouta will be packing their gear and polishing up some of their Scouting skills to participate in a camporee May [8-18 in Commerce Township.

The yerest, to be held at the Multi-lakes Conservation Association, is expected to draw more than 800 Scouts from 30 troops and eight cub packs in the Ottown District.

The Court of th

Lone gunman robs station

FARMINGTON HILLS—A lone gumman held up an attendant at the Boron Gas Station at Medde Bett and Twelve Mile roads, April 18 and took nearly $450.

Police said that the robbery took place at 10:20 p.m. after the attendant James Shields of Farmington Hills had checked the pumps for the night. Shields as add that a man followed him into the station and forced him too the back room where the safe was kept. The attendant said that the gumman shielded his lace with his hand.

The robbery is under investigation.

Farmington man killed in traffic

FARMINGTON HILLS—The city recorded its third traftic fatality of the year with the death April 21 of Mark F. York. 20. of Farmington Hills. According to police. York: 20 to Mark Sody was found at 9.20 pm. along Twelve Mile Road just west of Branwell . The Oakland County coroner said that chart was caused by shock and he-morrhaging due to multiple internal initiation.

morrhaging due to multiple internal injuries.
York is believed to have been struck by a vehicle.
Police said that York had left a party at a home on Twelve Mile shortly before he was found dead.
No witnesses have been located.

Farmington Observer Eccentric

hitched every Mendey and Thursday the Observer & Eccentric New-pers, 2021 Schoolcreft Rd. Livenia, the Committee of the Committee of the late of Livenia, Michigan 6021. Ad-ditional profit of the Committee of the State of the Committee of the Committee of the State of the Committee of the Committee of the Internal Principles of the State of the State of the Committee of the Committee of the Internal Principles of the

HOME DELIVERY SERVICE

ALL LEATHER JOHN MOLNAR MASTER SHOEMAKER What Woodard has wrought will save you $10

Here's a wrought iron patio group

you can see on now...and, enjoy all spring and summer!
The design is Woodsard's "Ionian".
Classic yet warm and gracious. And it's entirely carefree (one of their "stayout" collections)...with snow white nustoroof frames and super nomed wind stream is a bright. rugged vinyl straps in a bright rugged virity straps in a pright yellow and white combination. Right now, we have the five-piece group, the chairs, and a spring base chair in stock for prompt delivery. You can eye add an umbrella from our large selection for as little as $59.95. So dron by soon.

So drop by soon.

