 programs are now out and may be had by calling at Mrs. Flora Hendrix's. The programs are very neat and pretty and give much credit to the committee.

Mrs. Don Button received the sad news Monday of the drowning of her brother-in-law, Mr. Cogger, in Pine lake, near Charlevoix, where he and his family were visiting Mrs. Cogger's parents. His home was in Detroit. The remains were brought to South Lyon, his former home, Wednesday for burial.

The official board of the Methodist church resolved to become responsible for the repair of the steds and a committee, consisting of Wm. H. H. Smith, S. D. Harger and the pastor, was appointed to push matters along. As the lamps are in poor repair, the pastor was directed to obtain estimates for the installation of a lighting system. Other routine matters connected with the church were discussed preparatory to the fourth quarterly conference to be held next week Tuesday.

In order to settle up a mill owner's estate the dress goods on hand were sold for a song and were made up in the new fall styles of skirts and suits, and D. K. Smith secured about 150 of them. He will have part of his purchase on sale at his store for a few days. He bought so he can sell strictly all-wool

The secretary of state's office is working on a new design for automobile license tags which the state furnishes when the $3 license fee is paid by buzz wagon owners. A new color or style is required each year, so that it can be readily seen whether the license is paid or not.

The Methodist pastor would be pleased to have all who pledged to help defray the expense of the repair of the church sheds to pay as soon as they can conveniently.
 He has $35 cash on hand and pledges for $35 more. Anyone who would like the privilege of sharing in this good work either by paying cash or by labor will apply to the pastor.

 next Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the church. As this is the most important meeting of the year, when the business of the year is closed up and the officers for the next conference year are chosen, it is hoped there will be a good attendance.

Death of Mrs. Abbie Gates.

Mrs. Abbie Gates, familiarly known as "Aunt Abbie," died Wednesday morning at the Arnold Home in Detroit, where she had been living for some time. Mrs.
 Gates was one of the old-time residents of Farmington, having come here from the eastern part of the country some fifty years ago.

She is survived by one daughter, who lives in Detroit, and a grandson, Mark Crawford of this place.

Mrs. Gates had been in very poor health for some time, but the cause of her death at this time is attributed to the effect of a thunder storm in Detroit Monday evening.

The funeral was held from the Methodist church Thursday afternoon in charge of the pastor and Rev. Dr. Arnold of Detroit.

The Horseman
 Like a fine animal. You get the horse and Harvell's Condition Powders will do the rest. It is the best condition powder on the market. Absolutely no waste and every ingredient is medicinal.
 Used by all the leading eastern racing stables. You should try them and see for yourself. Price 25c per package. Sold by T. H.
 McGee.

J. A. Carr & Son, Lansing, Mich., writes: "We have used Harvell's Condition Powders on our lively horses for about three years and have always found them superior to all others. We have found that lively horses are subject to great abuse and Harvell's Condition Powders always bring back the appetite and puts them on their pins."
