Bidding systems vary with different partnerships. A great many of the old-time players would not hesitate to open the South hand. After all, it has three honor count and three quick tricks.

West led the nine of diamonds. Some players, using today's standard American bidding system, would decide to pass. The hand has only 11 points in high cards and one for the doubleton diamond. One point short of a minimum opening bid and only three tricks.

Tournament players are aggressive and most of the players competing in the Michigan Bridge Association sectional last week opened the South hand.

Most players promise five cards in a major suit; therefore the opening bid was usually one club. North knew South had at least three clubs, and placed the final

CALCULATING CALVIN'S CORNER.

Readin', 'Ritin', and Some Simple 'Rithmetic. If you're as crazy as I am about interesting facts and figures, you'll be equally enthused about the current issue of Motor News, the official publication of the Automobile Club of Michigan. Every Triple A member receives Motor News free each month. And there's no better free readin' than the fine writin' that's gone into the contents of the entire issue for June, which is titled "How To Save Money Having Fun."

Dollars and Sense. When it comes to learning the Three R's from AAA, there's nothing that's as current or that makes more sense to me than the whole line-up of feature articles in the June issue. Dig some of these titles: Eating for Pennies, Backyard Vacations, Budget Weekend Trips, Shop at Farmers Markets and Save, and Two Can Go Almost As Cheaply As One. Why, you could more than save the cost of your Triple A membership with this one issue of Motor News alone.

Everyone Loves a Crusade. In addition to being an absolute authority on Michigan and Michigan travel, Motor News lets you know exactly what it thinks about cars, camping, catalytic converters and a wide variety of other sensitive subjects ranging from air bags to speed traps. And it leads the crusades we all favor, whether to further the cause of highway safety or to ban topless trucks that fling gravel on our highways and break our windshields.

But Motor News has to be seen to be appreciated. So, tell you what I'll do. You fill out the coupon and I'll make sure you get sent the June issue of Motor News absolutely free. Or, a year's subscription is only $3 for non-members. How can you beat that for an inflation-busting value?

Auditions opening

The Oakway Symphony Orchestra is opening its auditions for the 1975-76 season. There are openings in the orchestra for all strings, some woodwinds, brass and percussion.

Conductor of the symphony is Francesco DiBlasi and president of the symphony society is Rev. Bertil E. Anderson.

College credits for musicians who are members of the orchestra are given by Madonna College in Livonia; Marygrove College in Detroit; Mercy College in Detroit; Oakland Community College, Orchard Ridge Campus, in Farmington; and the University of Detroit. The orchestra rehearses regularly from September through May at 7:30 p.m. Mondays in Harrison High School Auditorium. It will play a total of 12 concerts through the year, which includes a series of six subscriptions. The concerts will be performed in Birmingham, Farmington, Livonia, Southfield and Redford.

Persons interested in auditioning may write: Oakway Symphony Society, Inc. P. O. Box 171, Farmington, 48024.

Panel talk on violists

Sir William Primrose, a dean of world violists, will moderate a panel discussion of "The Future of Violists Professionally" at 1:30 p.m. Sunday in the ballroom of McKenny Union on the campus of Eastern Michigan University.

The discussion is part of the schedule of activities for the International Viola Congress of the Viola Research Society, to be held at EMU Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

A HOME IN THE COUNTRY. A HOME IN TOWN. SAME HOME.

How few are the pleasures that satisfy opposite needs.

A chocolate-marshmallow sundae that isn't fattening would be as noble an invention as any.

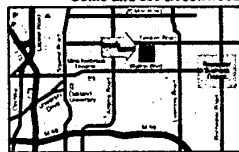

And consider a home, and how many of us say we would actually like to have two homes. The nearby, near-in-weekday kind of place where the more orderly routines of life follow neatly. And the place "somewhere else" where routines are not merely broken; but non-existent; where an ordinary two-day weekend or a Tuesday afternoon in the spring can seem like two weeks in June.

If only there were a way to put them together.

We think there is such a place now.

We went just far enough from a freeway and built it in a glen and called it Brookwood. And without ever leaving Brookwood you can enjoy morning swims, midday tennis, afternoon golf and evening cookouts on private balconies.

Come and see Brookwood.

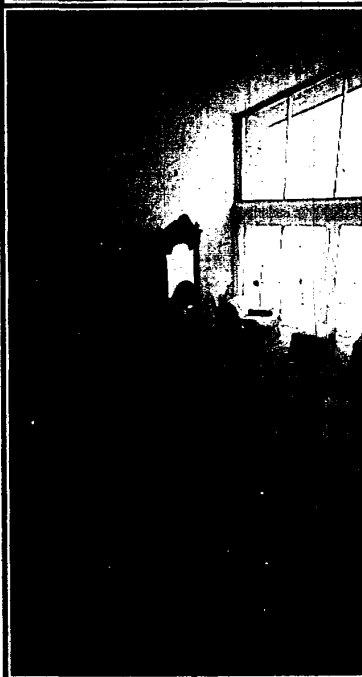

Brookwood, which is planned as a community of 285 city-country cluster homes set in the rolling land just west of Rochester, Michigan, offers all the equity and tax advantages of home ownership combined with many carefree benefits usually found in the most luxurious rental units.

Those who buy new homes at Brookwood now will be eligible for a credit of up to $2,000 on their 1975 income tax. Tienken Road, between Adams Road and Livermore Road, Rochester. Models open 1 p.m.-6 every day. For further information, call 651-3876 or 652-3990.
