All metro schools need redistricting other key to the problem is segregation itself and it is getting political realities may not be stone walls after all. The major problem in Detroit is so managed that disadvantaged areas get inadequate funding. The Church hosts guest Dr. Bruce F. Mase will speak at the First Presbyterian Church, Birmingham, at 10 am. Sunday, Dr. Mase is senior pastor of the Market Street United Presbyterian Church in Lims, Ohio. He received his B.S. and M.S. in education from the University of Michigan. After earning his B.D. in theological Seminary, he was granted his Ph.D. in Psychotherapy from the distinct of the performed individual and group informal lay discussion period. The problem is segregation that U.S. Riot Commission Report based in 1962. The final day of judicial hearings about segregated education in Detroit brought a brief by the three top political leaders of the city saying suggested remedies are fruitless. What a breath of fresh air?

Examination of education repeatedly ends on the note that pol-
