Double wedding anniversary set

Two wedding anniversaries will be celebrated when Mr. and Mrs. Emory Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bragalone are honored at a party Sunday, Aug. 17.

Both couples were married on Aug. 25. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, who before their move to Phoenix, Ariz. in 1959 lived in Farmington for 40 years, will observe their golden wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bragalone of Livonia will be celebrating 25 years of wedded life. Mrs. Bragalone is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson. The Johnson's other daughter, Mrs. Shirley Butler of Goodyear, Ariz., will also be on hand for the event.

The Johnsons were married in Detroit in 1925, and the Bragalones were wed in Redford Township in 1959. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson both worked for Ford Motor Co. before their retirement. They have 10 grandchildren.

Food shopper language

To help satisfy a family's nutritional needs and stay within the family food budget, there is a need to understand the language used in the food trade.

In a ten-page folder, the U. S. Department of Agriculture defines 150 terms seen in the grocery. For a free copy of "Food Shopper Language" write: Consumer Information, Dept. 30, Pueblo, Colorado 81009.

Explanations of some less familiar meat terms include:

- Bullock Beef — meat from young male cattle under about 24 months of age. When such beef is federally graded, "bullock" will appear in the grade stamp.
- American Leg — leg of lamb with shank bone removed, shank meat folded back into a pocket and fastened with skewers.
- Pike's Peak — heel of round. A less tender, boneless beef roast from the lower portion of the round section.
- Saratoga Chop — boneless lamb chop from the inside shoulder muscles.

The folder also includes a listing of terms you'll find when you shop for milk and milk products, and grains.

"Food Shopper Language" is one of almost 250 selected Federal consumer publications listed in the information edition of the Consumer Information Index. Published quarterly by the Consumer Information Center of the General Services Administration, the Index is available free from Consumer Information, Dept. 30, Pueblo, Colorado 81009, or at Federal Information Centers located throughout the country.
