ATHENS WAS offered the spot in the MSAA, a smaller six-team league, when Utica Elsenhower amounced it intended to withdraw at the end of this year.

Originally, Essenhower was expected to form a a Utica-only league, but they decided instend to take Rochester's place in the Oskitand As the start of next year.

"They tithe MSAA! encouraged us to take the step and wait one year," and McGregor. "We talked to them and they said we could join one year later.

"In the intervening time we will play out our schedule in the Oskitand A. We had intended to do that if they are the country of the country of the country of the country." The move to switch Athers to the MSAA was made originally Judy following a meeting between McGregor. Boyd Larson, assistant superintednat of secondary schools, and Peyton Goodwin, saithelic director of all Troy schools. Goodwin said a transfer to the MSAA, a league he considered more competitive, was premature and the voted against the proposed transfer.

But Larson and McGregor overrode.

he voted against the proposed transfer.

But Larson and McGregor overrode has vote on the grounds that the MSAA had more to offer the entire student body.

"The basic reason for the transfer is that the MSAA estemble opportunities to all students not just those in stablettes." said McGregor. They offer a wider via set yet of activates such as drama ere. 9, student government, and foreseive. A student body should have more offered to it than just athletics.
