Rummage sale aids students

The Farmington Musicals' annual "Dollars for Scholars" rummage sale will be held Friday and Saturday, Oct. 24-25, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. in First United Methodist Church, 3312 Grand River, at Warner.

Each year, music students in the Farmington area vie for a series of cash awards offered by the musicals. Proceeds from the rummage sale go into the musicals' growing scholarship program.

The sale this year offers contributions from more than 70 families of clothing, books, toys, household goods, home furnishings, jewelry and assorted bric-a-brac. Many new and like-new items are always included.

Fresh baked items come from some of the best recipes of musicals chorus members and Glockenspiels, the club's junior group.

Cynthia Haight dances in play

Cynthia Haight of Farmington Hills appeared in the cast of Thornton Wilder's play, "Our Town," produced by students at Northern Michigan University in Marquette.

Miss Haight, a sophomore majoring in psychology, played the part of a dancer. The cast of "Our Town" is made up entirely of freshmen and transfer students.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Stanis

Thursday, October 23, 1975 THE OBSERVER & ECCENTRIC (F113B)

Grace Elizabeth Nauman and Gary Stanis were wed in double ring candle-light ceremonies conducted by Rev. Eric Hammar and Father Joseph Jacyana in Orchard United Methodist Church on Sept. 28. She is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Nauman, of Farmington Hills, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Stanis of Union Lake.

The bride wore an ivory satin organza gown with lace trim and a Juliet floor length headpiece. It was adorned with an antique pin, the same pin her sisters wore on their wedding days, which belonged to her great-grandmother, Mrs. George Morrow. Her bouquet was a Williamsburg arrangement of stephanotis, yellow roses and baby's breath.

She was attended by Nancy Mikoz, Michelle Clinton, Theresa Dwyer and Karen Hammon, a sister of the groom. They were clad in yellow gowns and carried bouquets of fall flowers.

The groom was attended by Robert Zakar, Dave Wass, Dave Nauman, a brother of the bride, and Gary Hammon, a brother-in-law of the groom.

Three sisters of the bride and a sister of the groom acted as hostesses at the reception in Batdorf Inn, Kathie Adams, Sue Cole, Nancy Ortwein and Sue Moshier.

The couple received 250 guests before leaving on a wedding trip to Toronto and Niagara Falls. They will make their new home in Walled Lake.

Both are graduates from North Farmington High School and Western Michigan University.

Miss Duseau engaged to David N. Ticknor

Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Duseau of Birmingham announce the engagement of their daughter, Garry Georgiana, to David Norman Ticknor of South Haven. Ticknor is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Ticknor of Farmington Hills.

Miss Duseau was graduated in June from Michigan State University. Her fiancé was graduated in 1962 from Wayne State.

A December wedding is planned in Franklin Community Church.

People Visit Other Luxury Communities.

They Buy In WabEEK Pines.

Most people are pretty careful shoppers. Especially when you get into the luxury home market. Our residents are representative of some very important businesses; professionals, executives in automotive and industry. And they spend their dollars very wisely.

They look at location. That's the first step where WabEEK Pines wins over others. WabEEK Pines has wooded areas, lakeview and golfview lots. It is secluded and private . . . and quiet. Built on the former estate of Senator James Couzens, you inherit an address of distinction.

Next comes value and quality. WabEEK wins again! With spacious floor plans and beautifully detailed custom-like features. There are some good tax advantages, too. Along with deductions of interest and real estate taxes, WabEEK Pines qualifies for the $2000 tax credit* next April.

But the turning point comes when you consider the individual attention to customization, so that you can have your manor home detailed just the way you want it. With all the accoutrements of luxurious living that you're accustomed to.

So shop around. Check out what other communities call "luxury." Then visit WabEEK Pines to see the real thing. You'll see why WabEEK Pines sells itself to the smart and successful people.

WabEEK entrance is located on West Long Lake Road west of Telegraph between Franklin Road and Middlebelt Road. Take WabEEK Lake Drive to Pine Ridge Lane. Turn left at the gate house to Information Center and models.

Open from noon to six p.m. daily and Sunday or by appointment. (Closed Thursday)
