

Mini-class night planned

On Monday, Oct. 27, at 7:15 p.m., the Clarenceville Junior High administration and faculty invite parents to a mini-class night. Purpose of this activity is to give parents an opportunity to share in the educational activities that their children experience each day.

Each parent will follow his child's schedule for the complete school day. The mini-classes will be in session for 10 minutes during which teachers will explain their curriculum and goals.

If a parent would like to speak with a teacher about a student's progress, an opportunity for an appointment may be made with the faculty member during his conference hour.

Coffee, punch and cookies will be served in the cafeteria immediately following the class sessions. Parents also will have an opportunity to meet and speak with administrators, counselors and teachers.

October 29th & 30th: Hear Merrill Lynch tell how to manage your money in today's changing economy

Mail the coupon below for tickets to the Merrill Lynch Seminar: "How to Manage Your Money in Today's Changing Economy." It's free, but seating is limited, so mail today.

Not just another lecture

This Seminar is your chance to learn better ways to invest your money from professionals. Absolutely free.

Some topics we'll cover: What to do with money you want to keep safe. How to get high interest without tying up your money. An investment you should avoid if you're in a high tax bracket. And more.

You'll also receive a free copy of "Investments For a Changing Economy," a 16-page booklet with facts and figures to help you decide which investments you should choose and avoid — right now.

Are you bullish on America?

The past year can be summed up in one word: change. The way to go might be stocks one day, Treasury Bills the next. Or an investment tactic you've never heard of before.

But this flurry of change has also brought new opportunities. For high interest. Growth. Steady income. And for small investors to participate in markets that had never before been available to them. We haven't pulled in our horns. Merrill Lynch is bullish on America.

Come to the Seminar. It's free. But seating is limited. Send coupon for tickets and reserved seats now.
