

FHS shares league grid crown; Hawks lose

It's fun to be a winner, and anyone who wants to see the proof should drop in at Farmington High School where joy reigns supreme on the heels of a 38-0 football triumph over Waterford which brought the Falcons their first share of the Inter-Lakes League title since 1958.

In contrast, at Farmington Harrison they're struggling to put the pieces back together again after the Hawks were downed, 23-10, by Livonia Churchill in Friday's battle for the Western Six crown.

Both Harrison and North Farmington have enjoyed their days in the sun during the long period FHS has silently suffered, but now it's the Falcons' turn to enjoy the fruits of victory.

That they must share the 1975 championship in their loop with Walled Lake Central, which was a 37-14 winner over Piquette Northern Friday, is of minor consequence. The record book always will show that when the co-champions met, it was Farmington which was a 14-0 winner. That's consolation enough.

FEW EXPECTED the Falcons to blow Waterford apart as completely as the Falcons managed to do, for here was a team that had won four of its first six games and was considered one of the juggernauts of the state. "We're happy, we'll take it," grinned Falcon coach Hal Beardley after his troops had finished mopping up on the Skippers. "I'm tremendously proud of these kids. They all played great football."

The final score didn't reflect the tenacity of the battle that raged throughout the first half on the Waterford gridiron, for after those first two periods Farmington led only 7-0 and it still was anybody's ball game.

It was halfback Bert Herzog who put the Falcons on the board for the first time when he cut loose on an 80-yard touchdown romp in the second quarter. Randy Meier booting the extra point.

In the second half the Falcons' power tactics paid huge dividends. Meier scored from short yardage to cap a 95-yard drive in which Kevin Karsman was a consistent ground gainer, and Karsman himself ripped off a 61-yard scoring sprint.

Jerry Kuhlman picked off a Waterford attempted aerial and lugged it to the Skipper 25 from which he heaved a field goal when Waterford stiffened.

To cap the explosion Vance Gutierrez, a reserve halfback who had been used sparingly all fall, came into the ball game and broke things wide open with touchdown dashes of 10 and 37 yards in the fourth quarter.

KANSMAN WAS Farmington's leading ground gainer with 116 yards to his credit in 13 carries, while Herzog picked up 105 yards in four tries. All five extra points were kicked by Meier.

The Falcons stayed basically on the ground, trying only two passes and completing one of those for seven yards. A fine delegation from Farmington thrilled as the Falcons ground out 327 yards to Waterford's 127 by rushing, a statistic which left no doubt as to which was the superior ball club.

The Falcons finished the Inter-Lakes campaign with a 4-1 record, as did Walled Lake Central. Waterford being pushed down to third at 3-2. For the full season FHS now has a 5-5 mark with Southfield High and North Farmington yet to play in non-league encounters.

HARRISON'S HAWKS, who had wallowed Churchill unmercifully last fall en route to an 8-1 record and the Western Six crown, found the Livonians too much to handle this time, although they earned the battle all the way.

The two clubs went into the showdown with identical 4-0 records within the league and 5-1 marks overall, and when Paul Rogind put the Hawks in front 3-0 with a first quarter field goal from the 25-yard line it looked like this again might be Harrison's year.

However, the second quarter was a disaster for Harrison and the turning point for Churchill as the Chargers piled up 16 points in that brief span on two touchdowns, two conversions and a safety.

First quarterback Mike Streicher combined with Jim Wrist on a 47-yard scoring pass. Matt Foster converting. Then Bill Coyle went over on a short plunge. Foster again adding the extra point to make it 14-3. A safety resulting from a bad snap from center gave Churchill a 16-3 bulge at halftime.
